"HARAMBEE" 84
RECIPES
Preface

This booklet is a collection of recipes donated by those people preparing dishes for the 1984 celebration of Black History Month. Many of these recipes have been handed down through their families for generations. The Woods Hole Committee for Black History Month wishes to thank the contributors and hopes that you will try some of these unusual dishes at home.

Part of getting to know and understanding people different from oneself is being able to walk around in their shoes for a while and perhaps get a taste of their lives. It is hoped that this booklet will aid in this process.

PORTUGUESE SWEET BREAD
(Nancy J. Monroe)

INGREDIENTS:

2 pkgs. yeast, active dry or compressed
½ cup warm water (lukewarm for compressed yeast)
1 cup sugar
1 cup milk, scalded and still hot
½ cup (1/8 lb) butter
1 tsp. salt
3 eggs, well beaten
6-7 cups regular all purpose flour, sifted

Dissolve yeast in warm water. In large warm bowl, mix together sugar, hot milk, butter, and salt; stir until butter melts. When cooled to lukewarm, beat in eggs and yeast mixture. Gradually beat 5 cups of flour into liquid, blending until smooth. Flour a board heavily with part of the remaining flour, turn soft dough out onto board and sprinkle dough with more flour. Knead until very smooth and small air-filled blisters form on surface of dough (about 15-20 minutes) adding flour to board as needed. Place dough in a large buttered bowl. Keep covered in a warm place and let rise until doubled in bulk, about 2 hours. Punch down dough. Butter hands to work with dough. This amount of dough will make 6 small individual size round loaves or two pans greased (9" square size) of rolls. Shape dough to form round loaves, or put into loaves pan. Cover shaped dough lightly and set in a warm place to rise again for about 1 hour or until almost doubled in size. Bake in a 350° oven for 20 minutes or until golden brown. This bread freezes well.
Nancy's Portuguese Bread is from the Azore Island. When making bread, keep everything you use for mixing warm.

This is my second year to enjoy coming together with all of you. My family and I look forward for another.
